

FRENCH AIR FLEET COMPLETELY DESTROYED BULGAR CAMP-- Russians Have Again Defeated Turks In Caucasus--Serbs Suffer Severely Yet

ANOTHER RUSS VICTORY IN THE CAUCASUS ZONE

The Turks Hurriedly Fortifying
Nearer Their Capital.

Italy to Oppose the Austrians
In Albania.

(By Times Special Cable.)

London, Jan. 31.—Paris and its people escaped harm in the second Zepplin raid made on the city within two days. The official statement on the Sunday night attack declares that while the airship dropped a number of bombs, no damage from them has been reported. Anti-aircraft guns and aeroplanes attacked the raiders, which apparently let loose several of its explosive missiles virtually at once when pursued, most of the bombs falling on fields or open spaces.

There have been no further additions to the list of casualties from Saturday night's raid, officially given as 24 killed and 27 injured.

While isolated encounters and much artillery and mining activity is reported, comparative quiet seems to have settled down again upon the western fighting front, where the Germans recently have reported notable successes, particularly in making a considerable gain of ground south of the River Somme. French counter-operations, however, probably are to be looked for shortly in this zone of fighting.

In the eastern war theatre no recent activities resulting in appreciable change of front have been reported.

Aids from along the Franco-Belgian line, the military areas in which allied activity is being displayed at present are the Balkans and on the Caucasus front, where the Turks and Russians are displaying their usual tenacity and determination to hold out. On the domestic channels that the Russians are surrounding Moscow, they inflicted a fresh defeat on the Turks, who are fortifying hastily positions much to the westward, toward Constantinople.

In Albania the advance of the Austrian continues, but, according to reports to-day from German sources, there is likely to be increased opposition to them in the near future. Italy, it is declared, has decided to continue her Albanian campaign, and to have landed another infantry division with ample heavy artillery at Durazzo, with a view to an effective defense of southern Albania as a measure of political necessity.

HUNS WIPE OUT THE ENTIRE SERBIAN RACE

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, Jan. 31.—The latest news filtering through Serbia appears to confirm recent reports of the precarious state of the remaining population. All persons of the race have been systematically required to be registered by the invaders, and it is said that all persons caught trying to conceal their identity will be shot as their word, owing to the fact that there are no neutral diplomats remaining to witness their acts.

Major G. C. Wright has received letters from Sir George Hough, enclosing a copy of a letter from Major-General J. W. Carson, advising him that Captain G. C. Wright will be returned to Canada for instruction at purpose. This is very gratifying news, and the writer of the communication is a well-deserved recognition of his capability as an officer. He was one of the first to enlist, and went over with the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Major Wright was soon promoted to a captaincy, and now holds the rank of major. He has won all his honors and decorations. He has participated in all the activities in which the Royal Canadian Battalion have been engaged, and was in the thick of the fighting at Beaumont-Hamel, Vimy, Givenchy, Neuve Chapelle, Festubert, and Flers.

A letter received from the gallant officer was written from the trenches. He had then been on a brief trip to London, not having had time to write before leaving for France.

Major Wright will receive a royal welcome on his return to Hamilton, and his helpers will make every effort to assist the military authorities in Canada.

The stage where he has something definite for those interested.

DOING HIS BIT

Mr. Swan's World Exhibit for Patriotic Purposes.

Members of the local sporting trade, who no longer are prepared to contribute for the protection of the dependents of those soldiers who fell in the service of their country, have wreathed flowers from the Star Theatre, several pieces of silk in the city and is doing the "bit" as he is able to. He is working on munitions at the factory of Brown, Boveri & Cie., and has agreed to give a fancy skating exhibition in aid of our patriotic movement. Mr. Swan has been dealing with various schemes for weeks and has reached the stage where he has something definite for those interested.

FOR UNINSURED

Mayor Ready With Scheme to Protect Soldiers' Dependents.

Before the Finance Committee of the Hamilton Red Cross League this week, Mayor Walters will explain a scheme for the protection of the dependents of those soldiers who fell in the service of their country. The scheme, which is to be put into effect as soon as possible, is to provide a fund to be used to help the dependents of those who have lost their lives.

BRUTAL CRIME NEAR BUFFALO

Family in Automobile Hit By Hold-Up Men.

Two Killed, Another Dying.
Fourth Wounded.

(By Times Special Wire.)

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 31.—An Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says it is reported from Salomini that in the early morning a hold-up gang robbed a family in an automobile near the Orchard Park road, near this city, early to-day. Several hours elapsed before the city and county authorities were informed of the crime, and the assailants had made good their escape.

The victims are prominent Buffalo residents and members of the same family. They are Mrs. Agnes M. Leiper, age 57, shot in the head and instantaneously killed.

Frederick C. Leiper, son, beaten to death with blunt instrument.

Frederick G. Leiper, daughter, skull fractured; will die.

Edward E. Leiper, son, beaten on the head and left unconscious on the roadside.

Mrs. Leiper was the widow of Conrad Leiper, who founded the Buffalo Structural Steel Company.

Leiper, 45, was driving from Orchard Park, and had stopped their car a short distance south of the Terminal Railroad crossing. They were immediately stopped by an unknown man. Mrs. Leiper was killed by the first of four shots fired. The man then came to the others, and after shooting them of the car, drove away.

A farmer living nearby heard the shooting and the cries of the women and gave the alarm.

CRAIGIE WRIGHT.

Giant son of McEld. Harry G. Craigie has been made a Major and Wright is to command the regiment.

WHO DID IT?

Driver Going to Buy His Birch Street Gun.

That is Question Raised by School Board.

Quite a serious accident, which was followed by a second accident, occurred about midnight on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Levitz, and their son, who reside near the new school in Barton township, east of the Jockey Club, were returning home, going east on Barton street, on foot.

When about a block and a half from Keweenaw avenue an auto, coming from the east, owned by Mr. H. A. Gruber, struck and killed a small, scrawny dog. For a time it was feared the boy would be fractured.

Dr. Gleason of Keweenaw and King streets, was summoned and started at once for the scene in his buggy. Going along Keweenaw avenue he saw the auto, owned by Mr. H. A. Gruber, had a narrow escape. The little boy was struck and received a severe scalp wound. For a time it was feared the boy would be fractured.

Canadian Back From Front Says Allies Too Loyal With Huns.

Typical German Gall--Entire Guns Wearing Enemy Down.

(By Times Special Wire.)

St. John, N. B., Jan. 31.—Capt. W. K. Coulter, formerly of Toronto, was among the officers who returned yesterday on the Mesopotamia. He went overseas with the first Canadian contingent, and was transferred to the 12th Manchester Regiment, and has been in the trenches with that unit ever since.

"The British are too human," in their method of warfare," he said when interviewed. "Shortly before I left the trenches we captured two prisoners. Our sentry saw them running across the front of the trench and, shooting around, came up behind and captured them. They turned out to be Russians, that had been captured by the Germans at the general assembly. The Germans had brought hundreds of Russian prisoners over from the eastern to the western front. They were then concentrated on the British front. When we caught our men and were City, However, Is Willing to Sell Water to Those Interested.

A delegation composed of T. E. Brooks, John Young and Branch Robertson, representing the ratepayers of that section of Barton township, situated between Keweenaw Avenue and the western border of Saltfield townships and north of Main street to the west, waited, to-day, on the Board of Control to-day with reference to an annexation scheme with the city.

The ratepayers of this district, it will be recalled, recently voted in favor of incorporation as a village. Now, however, they are in favor of annexation to the city.

THE WAR SITUATION.

The Germans should be making attacks in force on the western front at this season of the year is not very clear. But during the most of last week they were bombarding the French positions in northwest France and then launching infantry attacks on the French defences. Between the Somme and the Oise these attacks have been frequent. The country here is what might be called undulating. Amiens is the capital of the province. It is but natural that the Germans should have made a gain for no other than sacrificed many men in these attempts. The Germans claim that they hold all the ground they captured, but the French say that the attacks upon their positions south of the Somme, opposite Doullens, were repelled, and the Germans then turned back into their trenches. Can it be possible that the Germans are trying again to get to the coast? These attacks would lead us to believe that the Germans feel themselves strong enough to challenge the allies to a trial of strength.

Count Zeppelin has scored again.

He murdered a number of innocent harmless people in Paris on Saturday night in their homes. What satisfaction did the old blackguard get out of such fiendish, cold-blooded deeds would be hard to tell. No doubt the French airmen will make reprisals, with the result that a number of innocent Germans may meet a similar fate. While these wars were being committed French aviators were destroying a Bulgarian camp on the Greek border. This is warfare, not murder.

Sir Percy Lake has reached the British expeditionary force on the Tigris and taken over the command. We hope that he has reinforcements with him. The war is still bad. The Greeks like Constantine the Invader Europe, and if he is strong enough he will likely leave the sarcasm couped up, while he continues his advance. His goal is said to be a junction with Gen. Lake's force, and thus draw a line across country, cutting out any advance in that direction by the enemy.

The allies have taken possession of the fortresses of Karaburun on the Greek coast, but not without opposition from King Constantine. These "occupations" by the allies made because Greece has allowed her coast to become bases for enemy submarine depots, and it is necessary to destroy them. The advance on Salonic has not yet been completed.

For the Canadian troops in England have been tickled into shape and are now in condition to take a fall out of the Germans, for Britain has made a call on Canada for another twenty thousand troops. We do not know if Sir Sam Hughes is under the Chief of Staff, nor are we afraid that if the newspapers had made such an announcement publicly they would have been called down for doing so. Sir Sam talks too much, we imagine.

THE SHELL BUSINESS.

Newspaper abuse of Mr. Carvel will never disprove the serious charges he has brought against Sir Sam Hughes' Shell Committee. These charges are many, direct and accompanied with proof, and all Mr. Carvel can do is to opportunity to prove them. He has admitted that when he was made a captain he is able to substantiate it. To him is due the fact that Premier Borden was compelled at last session of the House to read Mr. Garland and Mr. DeWitt Foster out of the Tory party and out of public life. Mr. Garland swore that he had no connection with the drug deal, and Mr. Foster tried to whitewash himself of all blame. But all to no avail. Mr. Carvel had the evidence and these men had to go. In the matter of the present charges he has the evidence in his possession. He charges fraud, and illegitimate raise-offs by people who were not making the goods. If everything was going on all right, why should Mr. D. A. Thomas come out to Canada, and why did Sir Sam Hughes have a run-in with him?

The better class of Tory newspapers see the need of an investigation of these charges, and are not slow to condemn those who acted dishonestly. We have looked in vain for one word of commendation, in this munition business from Lloyd George.

A LIFE MINISTRY.

The Rev. Robert Carvel, an old Hamilton boy, now pastor of a Congregational church in London, Ont., has preached a sermon on the 21st anniversary of his entering the ministry, in which he reviewed his life work, showing that the lot of the minister is not exactly a bed of roses. He must work and study, and his results were almost nil.

The United States may have noticed that Great Britain is conducting her paid loving tribute to the help he received in his younger days from the Rev. John Morton, of this city. In the course of his sermon, Mr. Hopkins said: "Preachers as well as hearers have changed in twenty years; you don't hear many sermons to-day calling men and women to follow the Lamb Christ in order to escape punishment and win heaven. The burden of the preacher's message who is in tune with the world is to tell the devil and the harmful influence of your baser self." Christ is presented as theaviour from the world, not from the devil and the everlasting fire.

It may be that the change has come about because, in spite of the declarations of scripture, fewer and fewer people believe in a literal brimstone hell and a real personal devil. Yet some may wonder how the gospel can be preached according to the scriptures and still leave them out. Are they mere creatures of the imagination conjured up to keep men and women in subjection, through fear? Are the statements of the Saviour to be ignored or explained away?

RECRUITING IN HAMILTON.

George Lynch-Staunton is a conscientious objector, and we believe that there are many young men in Canada who are equally so. What satisfaction did the old blackguard get out of such fiendish, cold-blooded deeds would be hard to tell. No doubt the French airmen will make reprisals, with the result that a number of innocent Germans may meet a similar fate. While these wars were being committed French aviators were destroying a Bulgarian camp on the Greek border. This is warfare, not murder.

These "occupations" by the allies made because Greece has allowed her coast to become bases for enemy submarine depots, and it is necessary to destroy them. The advance on Salonic has not yet been completed.

For the Canadian troops in England have been tickled into shape and are now in condition to take a fall out of the Germans, for Britain has made a call on Canada for another twenty thousand troops. We do not know if Sir Sam Hughes is under the Chief of Staff, nor are we afraid that if the newspapers had made such an announcement publicly they would have been called down for doing so. Sir Sam talks too much, we imagine.

We would advise, for instance, that the recruiting leagues of the country get together, and make an appeal to the Government to come to their assistance in some shape or form. Hamilton is full of men of military age, who should enlist, but many will not, either under present conditions. We may have whirlwind recruiting campaigns, and when they get every one, it is time that the Militia Act was looked up.

Editorially, there are not all pro-merit in Switzerland.

The returned soldier should get the preference every time.

The Cossacks do not believe in giving the enemy time to entrench.

Food is scarce in Vienna and neither Berlin nor Constantinople has any to spare.

In the meantime men over military age should get any appointments that are going.

Ontario women will be asking why Manitoba women should have a vote and they none.

"If Germany wins, nothing else on God's earth matters." That sums up the whole matter.

Blood does not seem to be any thicker than water when Britain can be forced into a corner.

The British Labor Congress was opposed on principle to conscription, but winked at its practice.

The parade of the Hamilton Garrison on Saturday afternoon was an inspiring and inspiring one, but its results were almost nil.

The United States may have noticed that Great Britain is conducting her submarine warfare in accordance with the dictates of humanity. See draws no indignation.

The Financial Post of Canada shows one way in which the Post Office Department is needlessly keeping up expenses in connection with the rural mail delivery. It says: "Boxes were to be supplied. Many clerks were needed for the few weeks' rush. These clerks were engaged and the boxes were supplied, but, once up, the work of the clerks was over, but not the postmen's. The clerks were given salaries with the statutory increases. They have nothing to do, and fill in a portion of the time in discussing the war and the chances of the authorities in getting the expected number of recruits." No wonder the Department had a deficit of $3,000,000 the past year.

The Montreal Star, one of the main newspaper supports of the Borden Government, does not think that it should reply to the Purpleay and Carroll charges by forcing the country into an election on the supposition that they are making the charges for partisan purposes. The Star declares that the Government should order a thorough investigation into the matter. It says, and it speaks seriously: "Presupposing that the change has come about because, in spite of the declarations of scripture, fewer and fewer people believe in a literal brimstone hell and a real personal devil. Yet some may wonder how the gospel can be preached according to the scriptures and still leave them out. Are they mere creatures of the imagination conjured up to keep men and women in subjection, through fear? Are the statements of the Saviour to be ignored or explained away?"

FINE ADDRESS IN ST. PAUL'S BY FARTH MINISTER.

Rev. A. H. Scott, M. A., of St. Andrew's Church, St. Paul, Ont., preached this service at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Drummond. Despite the inclemency of the weather there were fair-sized congregations both morning and evening.

In the evening the text was chosen from the 10th verse of the 6th chapter of St. Matthew, which reads: "The kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that went out to call laborers into his vineyard." This is the shortest petition in the Gospels, and the greatest of all. Although it is the shortest petition, it is put first in the Lord's prayer; for the needs of the vineyard are greater than those of the householder.

And for this reason is it placed prior to the part for the needs of the householder. Another thought brought forth was that the vineyard of the kingdom of heaven had not come to earth. John the Baptist, in his ministry, exhorted the people to remain faithful, and to expect the day soon to come. He believed that the coming of Christ was the coming of the kingdom, but Christ came to the earth, and the kingdom will not be a kingdom of man, but of God. The rule of the kingdom of God will not be a kingdom of man, but of God.

MAKING THE MOST OF THE SCARF

A Butterfly Arrangement of Chiffon

SCARFS have been having the greatest time this season: every one has just taken the scarf into her fashionable heart and is going to keep it there for some time. But not every one, no matter how favorably inclined toward this graceful feminine accessory, knows the fine points of scarf adjusting. Modistes have been cudgeling their wits to find artistic uses for the scarf, with the pictured results on this page.

That the scarf is not limited to any one time of day or dress is evidenced from the two extremes shown. It makes a great difference how you wrap that brilliant scarf of brushed wool about your throat. If you don't care, you just throw one end over the shoulder; but if you do care, you carefully cover the tip of the chin, bring both ends to the front, one a trifle longer than the other, and tuck them under the belt of your Norfolk suit.

When is a scarf not a scarf? The answer should be, when it can be snapped with six snaps into the fascinating little Eskimo hood and still keep its scarf identity with the long fringed ends, as the rose scarf pictured. Unsnapped, the scarf may be arranged like any two-yard scarf of brushed wool.

The "lure of maline" one might almost term the picture of the evening frock which uses a length of white maline to soften the corsage. White roses catch the maline to the wrists and form a real live scarf from two yards of raw material. The carefully gowned woman will appreciate the value of the softening influence of maline or tulle on arms that are not quite so young or plump as they should be. Maline is not so serviceable as tulle, but its initial cost is not so great that one cannot renew it more frequently and freshen up a worn frock with its crispness.

A brown-eyed miss in yellow will do well to use brown tulle for her shoulder scarf, especially if her skin is inclined to be sallow. If she weights it with flower garlands at the arm and twines them around the wrist, the scarf will stay fixed for several dances at least, and will more honestly deserve the name of scarf than the plain material.

A huge butterfly suggests itself from the folds of a printed chiffon scarf that has been put to good use on the back of a plain taffeta frock. If you look closely you will see that the scarf has been merely tied in a knot at the center back and the ends allowed to drop gracefully from the shoulders, where they have been attached to the front. This is a beautifully simple and youthful arrangement for a young girl.

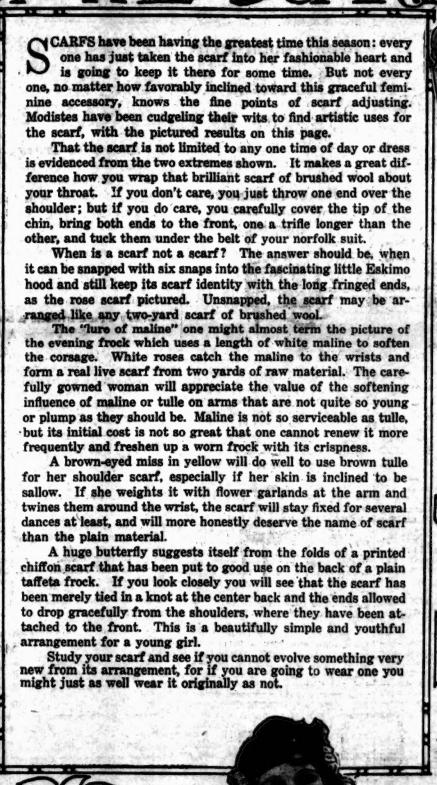

Study your scarf and see if you cannot evolve something very new from its arrangement, for if you are going to wear one you might just as well wear it originally as not.

FAMOUS RUSSIAN ARTISTS

After their first concert in Canada, the famous Russian artists received the offer of probably the most wonderful contract any artists ever received for three seasons in America. All music-lovers and the public in general will be greatly pleased to announce that the most brilliant pleasure the announcement that those wonderful artists, Leo, Jan and Michel Chernavsky, are to be heard at the Grand on Wednesday evening. They have worked together for about fourteen years, and the brothers are so responsive to each other's thoughts that they play with a kind of telepathic sensitiveness, so that each answers to the dominating thought of the trio like lightning-like telepathy. The Chernavskys are the most brilliantly successful of Australian artists and the way in which the university professors, the politicians and the convents and other religious bodies have acknowledged their indebtedness to the young geniuses is perhaps characteristic of this program and all the more remarkable are those whose duty it is to stimulate culture in Australia; have awakened to the great importance of music and the arts in the awakening of the latent intellectual powers of both the young and the old. The result has been that the Chernavskys have been overjoyed from the moment of their arrival everywhere. As perhaps Canada aspires even more to culture than Australia, it is to be hoped that all those interested in education will seize the opportunity and persuade all students, both young and old, the advisability of taking advantage of the Chernavskys' unique services in Canada.

Leo, Jan and Michel Chernavsky will be presented for one concert only, and don't fail to hear these wonderful artists, who are now seen and heard promises to be a large and handsome audience.

"TWIN BEDS."

Selwyn & Co., sponsors for "Within the Law," "Under Cover," "Rolling Stock," "The Show," "The Devil and the Deep Blue Sea," will present their clearest, merriest of farces, "Twin Beds," the laugh festival, by Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo, which had a tremendous success in New York, and after a tour of fifteen weeks' run on Broadway, at the Grand Opera House, on Friday and Saturday next, with an ideal cast of stars.

"Twin Beds" gains its enormous popularity by its clean, wholesomeness, its swift action, its sparkle of high comedy, and its brilliant illustrations.

Its story is built around the fact that people who live in fashionable apartment houses, whose only personal belongings are their pets, the same landlords, still have an unwelcome neighborliness, thrust down their throats by way of elevator, dumbwaiter, and insufficiency of bath and places.

The exceptionally skillful cast with which Selwyn and Company will present "Twin Beds," will be a matinee given on Saturday and seats on sale for all performances Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell and a complete London company will appear at the Grand on Tuesday evening, and this announcement is regarded as being particularly interesting, as it gives the leaders of this city their second chance to see what a success a new drama in G. Bernard Shaw's romance, "Pygmalion."

No devotee of Shaw need be afraid to play with disappointment, to prefer the Shavian comedies of some years ago, nor fear a new attack. "Pygmalion" as an entertainment is a perfect combination. An unlike Shaw, Mrs. Campbell plays delightfully, and the art of her perfect characterization takes possession of you—there is no denying the appeal of it—and dark beauty adds much to the picture.

State will go on sale next Friday, and mat orders can be seen in now.

For his headlines this week, Max Wall of the Temple, has been fortunate in securing "Fascinating Flora," a new miniature musical comedy, which is one of the star attractions of the season. The company and eight real people, prettiest girls who appear in a program consisting of singing and dancing. The skit is cleverly constructed, and contains plenty of laughs and laughs for all.

The number of the bill will be Smith and Smozer, the later one of the best educated dogs on the stage. You are watching the animal from this point after watching the canine.

The bill will also include McCabe, Lewis and Pond, "the ginger" trio; act David and Company, a new one; act Miller, Kil Conroy, abounding in extraordinary, and the reels of feature photo-plays.

TIPPERARY GIRLS

Teaming with mirth and melody, the Tipperary Girls are at the favor all this week. This situation introduces to local burlesque lovers Billy Gilbert, a comedian new to this city, and the comic Mata Hari, who is also playing her first engagement in this city. This happy couple of entertainers have already won their way through the ranks of burlesque comedy and staging. Gilbert, her methods all his own for laugh-provoking, his tale seems with Voulti Grey is sure to bring a smile to the faces of the most popular musical-comedy audiences. The chorus have their lingo during the competitive take walk contest, and the comedy offered by the management. The audience acts as judges. "The Fall of Babylon," a reproduction of that name, is seen in living models.

WHAT IS VOCAL STUDY?

If a dozen average answers to this quite ordinary question were compiled, they would not leave a very varied result. It is an unfortunate fact that too few people have had the opportunity to get the correct viewpoint on what singing is and how you can sing well.

The principal applies very largely to speakers. It seems unpardonable, with our abundance of public speakers, that it is not overheard that he who has tried seriously to develop his vocal resources and thus properly clothe the ideas matured through years of study and hard work, will be admitted as a singer or speaker, will be admitted. No charge is to be made.

OVER 3,000 RECRUITS

Have Been Taken On in Hamilton Since August.

Last Week 120 Applied and 59 Were Accepted.

Despite pessimistic utterances about recruiting, Hamilton has not been nearly as slow as one might be lead to believe. A total of 59 men were accepted of 120 who applied last week, and for the last half of January, up to and including this morning, 111 more have been accepted and now wear khaki.

Since the depot was established on August 3rd last, a total of 3,081 men had enlisted through it, up to January 26th. For a city the population of Hamilton this is a remarkably satisfactory number. Last week of the 120 who applied 59 were accepted and 120 recruits have been taken on again. On Saturday 24 men expressed a willingness to serve the Empire, and 14 were found physically fit, and 10 more accepted and two to be examined again.

The nationalistic report for the last half of January up to Saturday night registered as yet and of these 34 were Canadians, 65 Englishmen, 16 Scotch, one Irish and seven of other nationalities.

Included in those who were accepted this morning was Pte. P. J. Gordon, 24 years old, four inches. He is 44 pounds of age, but looks to be only about 35.

The military parade of Saturday afternoon and evening was a success, and a record was set, and this was due to the efforts of "Twin Beds," the laugh festival, by Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo, which had a tremendous success in New York, and after a tour of fifteen weeks' run on Broadway, at the Grand Opera House, on Friday and Saturday next, with an ideal cast of stars.

"Twin Beds" gains its enormous popularity by its clean, wholesomeness, its swift action, its sparkle of high comedy, and its brilliant illustrations.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Well, what about all these fire, Chairman Wright?

If you want to go to the front with Gen. Leslie in the 17th.

There cannot be many more January than this month.

Is Ad. Haiford thinking of putting a time clock in the City Hall?

My way of getting square with the front Rafferty is to say, "The citizens can get what they want by going strike."

There will be lots of ice next month, or my name is Jack Robinson.

Pick out your vacant lot now for special planting for the spring.

I have no idea that that money will be spent on St. Paul's this year. It may be a revolt next year.

But a public park is not a playground. There's a difference.

If the jump comes after me I will have to jump into some kind of a suit.

And then, doctor, that may not be the only school. There are others and more to build.

The man in the trenches are calling for you to go over and help them.

Blame your horse. He feels the cold just as you do.

No unexampled crowds demonstrated around the city hall this winter. Even father is working.

Home Chat's thought for to-day: A word is dead if it is said, some say.

I say that begins to live.

The man in the trenches are calling for you to go over and help them.

Blame your horse. He feels the cold just as you do.

No unexampled crowds demonstrated around the city hall this winter. Even father is working.

Home Chat's thought for to-day: A word is dead if it is said, some say.

I say that begins to live.

That day.
